

Wellington Branch Criteria for Grants from Trust Funds

In general, travel and accommodation expenses will not be considered

A financial member of Wellington Branch can express an interest in nominating the student. The approach should be through the Branch Secretary or Chairperson

The Ariadne Danilow Fund ... for students; a scholarship for a particular event or purpose

- A student of a financial member of Wellington Branch IRMTNZ.
- Age is at the discretion of the Trust Fund Committee.
- Applications for normal teaching fees, exam fees and for buying a musical instrument will be considered.
- A promising student who is continuing studies at an advanced level.
- Preference will be given to a student who can demonstrate interest and involvement in community music making.
- Preference will be given to students whose teachers have encouraged them to further their musical education by involvement with local IRMTNZ Branch events. E.g. in Wellington, helped at or attended seminars, workshops, participated in competitions.
- A student at NZSM VUW who comes from outside Wellington can be considered, provided their teacher is a financial member of the Branch.
- Preference will be given to the student who can demonstrate the greatest financial need.
- Preliminary enquiries should be made to the secretary or chairperson of Wellington Branch IRMTNZ.
- A written report should be sent to the Finance Committee within six months of receipt of money.

Kate Jourdain Fund ... for teachers

- This is for short term PD or study fees for financial members of Wellington Branch IRMTNZ (not for travel or accommodation).
- Students who apply for the IRMTNZ Teacher Training Course fees might be adult, non-members-but-potential-ones, struggling to bring up a family and paying course fees.
- Examples of study: Conference fee; short courses in or outside New Zealand.
- Preference will be given to IRMTNZ events.
- Preference will be given to applicants who have demonstrated interest or involvement with Branch events (primarily) and also with community music making.
- Preliminary enquiries should be made to the Secretary or Chairperson of Wellington Branch IRMTNZ.
- A written report should be sent to the Finance Committee within six months of receipt of money.